

Press Release: Matthew Leonard Awarded Scottish Business News 40 Under 40, 2016

September 2016

EOS Syndicate Manager & University of St Andrews student, Matthew Leonard has been profiled by Scottish Business News as one of the forty leading individuals aged under 40 who are currently making a significant contribution to the Scottish business landscape.

The award, sponsored by Exolta Capital Partners, recognizes Matthew's work with both EOS & as the Co-Founder of the St Andrews Angels. The St Andrews Angels comprises a group of seasoned entrepreneurs, business leaders, alumni and faculty within the US and UK who facilitate deal flow between the University of St Andrews and its global network, as well as providing investment capital, strategic advice and mentoring to early-stage businesses.

Matthew Leonard

Commenting on the award, Matthew said "I have been exceptionally fortunate to have had access to both amazing individuals and opportunities whilst at St Andrews and further afield through the alumni community. To be profiled by SBN & Exolta Capital Partners is truly an honor, and above all is a credit to the caliber of both EOS and the University of St Andrews".

For further information, please contact:
Kevin Grainger, Founder & Gatekeeper
EOS Technology Investment Syndicate
kevin@eos-tech-investors.com